

Meadow Montessori School
Literature for History
Intermediate East and West

The literature that we read at the Intermediate elementary level accompanies our history curriculum. The following lists should help you recognize the books that will be a part of your child's curriculum level. The books will be distributed as they are needed. This list is subject to change as the year progresses.

FIRST YEAR: Prehistory and Ancient Civilizations

Hatchet	Gary Paulsen
Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing	Judy Blume
Boy of the Painted Cave	Justin Denzel
Gilgamesh the King	Ludmila Zeman
A Place in the Sun	Jill Rubalcaba
The Ch'I-Lin Purse	Linda Fang
Book of Greek Myths	D'Aublaires
Escape by Sea	L.S. Lawrence

SECOND YEAR: American History I

Birchbark House	Louise Erdrich
Around the World in 100 Years	Jean Fritz
Witch of Blackbird Pond	Elizabeth George Speare
Sign of the Beaver	Elizabeth George Speare
Johnny Tremain	Esther Forbes
NightJohn	Gary Paulsen
Harriet Tubman: Conductor on the Underground Railroad	Ann Petry
Sacajawea	Joseph Bruchac
Sing Down the Moon	Scott O'Dell

THIRD YEAR: American History II

A Gathering of Days	Joan Blos
Brothers of the Heart	Joan Blos
Anthony Burns	Virginia Hamilton

Across Five Aprils

Irene Hunt

Ladies of Seneca Falls

Miriam Gurko

Lyddie

Katherine Paterson

No Promises in the Wind

Irene Hunt

Number the Stars

Lois Lowry

Mississippi Trial 1955

Chris Crowe